

Leadership

Consistory

The Consistory, consisting of the Boards of Elders and Deacons, meet the first Monday of every month to seek God's vision for North Holland Reformed Church. Oversight of ministries and direction of the congregation are also part of the Consistory's work. Elders and Deacons are nominated by the congregation and then selected by the casting of lots from a double slate. Each of the nine elders and nine deacons serve a three year term with three years in between each time of service.
